

Men! Reclaim Your Teenage Fire

Reclaiming Your Teenage Fire: Inner Mentor Training is a gentle but extraordinary visit to your teenage years. It stands alone as a valuable personal training and is a requisite to participate as a mentor in the Boys to Men Mentoring program, where adult men have the opportunity to support, acknowledge, and bless young men growing up today.

Saturday afternoon, July 31 through Sunday afternoon, August 1

Solace Center, 6601 Valentine Way, Santa Fe, New Mexico

Call Neil Egan at (505) 470-5960 or visit www.BoysToMenNewMexico.org to register

“It was a joy to revisit and feel the energy and power I had as a teenager.” –Neil Egan

“Of all the personal growth trainings I have participated in, this was the most powerful.”—Rick Grimes, Educator

“Remembering my struggles as a young man, I realized what a difference a supportive, adult man would have made in my life. Inner Mentor Training ignited my desire to help raise healthy young men.” –David River
